Plea Made to Save Tracks For Valley Scenic Railroad

State Road Asked For Time to Marshal Forces

The Wasatch Railway Museum and Foundation, Inc., the Wasatch Chamber of Commerce and interested community citizen are working to preserve the railroad track from upper Provo Canyon to Heber City. Steam locomotives and railroad cars are available through the Wasatch Railway Museum to place on this abandoned line as a scenic railroad. The old D&RG station house on West Center Street has been acquired by the Foundation and will be renovated to accomodate passengers as in years gone by.

Over one hundred scenic railroads are operating throughout the country helping to preserve the golden era of the steam locomotive and to enhance scenic or historical attractions in various parts of the country. Heber Valley is ideally situated for a scenic railroad with its beautiful mountains, canyons, lush valley and lake.

The State Road Commission is planning to remove all the D&RGW track from Olmstead in lower Provo Canyon to Heber, which includes the track
